Thou, o king, sawest, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof was terrible.

Daniel 2:31

7

This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass,

Daniel 2:32

8

Thou sawest till that a stone
was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them in pieces.

Daniel 2:34

9

Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors;

Daniel 2:35

10

And the wind carried them away,
that no place was found for them:
and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

Daniel 2:35

And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things:

Daniel 2:40

27

And as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.

Daniel 2:40

28

“The images of gold, silver, or brass, that might serve to represent the nations and their kings, were successfully broken by the iron monarchy of Rome.”

The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire – Edward Gibbon

Then the word of the lord came to me, saying, o house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? Saith the lord. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, o house of Israel.
