“Were the redeemer to descend into a church , and sit into a confessional to administer the sacrament of penance, and a priest to sit in a confessional, . . .

Liguori, Dignities and Duties of the Priest, pg 18

51

Jesus would say over each penitent: ‘Ego te absolvo’, the priest would likewise say over each of his penitents, ‘Ego te absolvo’, and the penitence of each would be equally absolved.”

Priests are called the parents of Jesus Christ: such is the title that St. Bernard gives them, for they are the active cause by which he is made to exist really in the consecrated Host.

53

Thus the priest may, in a certain manner, be called the creator of his Creator, since by saying the words of consecration, he creates, as it were, Jesus in the sacrament, by giving him a sacramental existence, and produces him as a victim to be offered to the eternal father.

Liguori, Dignities and Duties of the Priest, pg 32

54

And St. Augustine has written, “ O venerable sanctity of the hands! O happy function of the priest! He that created (if I may say so) gave me the power to create Him; and he that created me without me is himself created by me!”

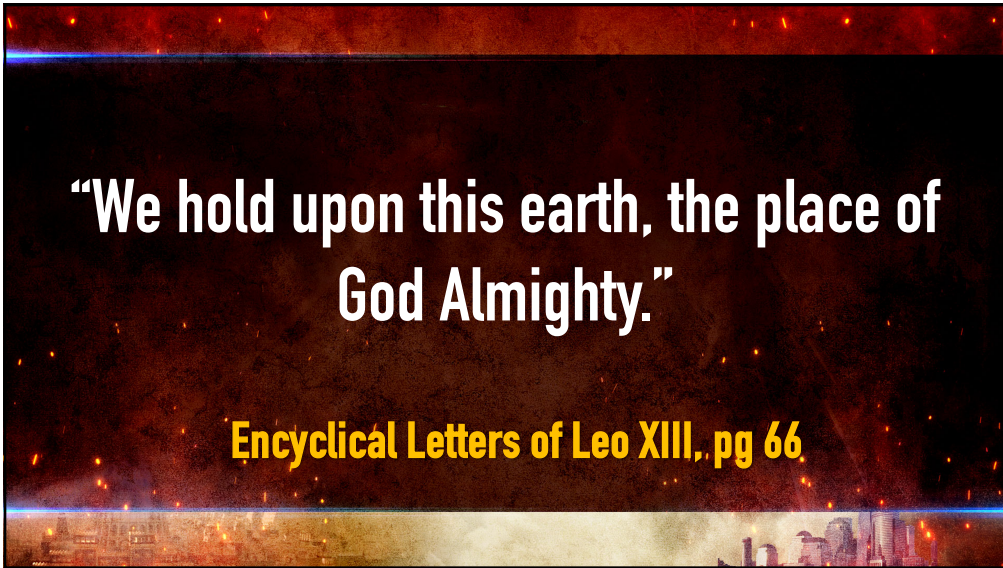

Liguori, Dignities and Duties of the Priest, pg 33

January 10, 1890

62

“God himself is obliged to abide by the judgement of his priest, and either not to pardon or to pardon, according as they refuse or give absolution . . . The sentence of the priest precedes, and God subscribes to it.”
